IT IS KORNBLUM'S.

Pittsburg Can Now Bonst of One Fine Optical Store at Least.

Kornbium, the well known optician, now occupies the entire building No. 50 Fifth avenue. A reporter visited his place of business yesterday, and found his saleroom elegantly fitted out with all the modern In the forward part of the store is a private parlor, handsomely equipped, used only for fitting glasses; in the rear is another apartment where the costly glass eyes are kept in large safes, and where Mr. Kornblum skillfully duplicates ruined On the third and top floor is the workon the third and top floor is the work-shop. Mr. Kornblum insists on making everything pertaining to his business him-self, something which very few opticians can do. The second floor is given up to surveyors' instruments, photographic out-fits etc.

The storeroom is full of the finest optical goods, imported field, tourist and opera-glasses, made especially for Mr. Kornblum's trade. Without question Mr. Kornblum has one of the best optical establishments in the country, which, combined with his great skill as an optician, has given him and his store a national reputation.

A Sonp Centennial.

Since the centennial of Washington's inauguration is to be celebrated in such regal style throughout the country, another event cannot be overlooked, which all loval citi-sens should sanction and give thanks forthe invention and existence of PEARS' SOAP. It is the purest, cleanest, most elegant and economical of all toilet articles, therefore the best and most attractive of all soaps. As a complexion specific it cannot be equaled, and its other sterling qualities render it invaluable to any one who wishes to be cleanly.

One hundred years has it been held in highest esteem, and this year is the anniversary of Queen Charlotte's visit to Pears' establishment, where she purchased this valued article for her complexion. She prized Pears' soap above all others, and 'set the style' among her subjects, who used it as well as every other people throughout the viriliard world. throughout the civilized world therefore conclusively proving that Pears' soap is without a peer.

MARTHA WASHINGTON CAKE. One pound granulated sugar, half pound butter; beat these to a light cream; then add in four parts (beating light each time) the well-beaten whites of twelve eggs; stir into this one cup sweet milk, one teaspoonful of extract bitter almond, and one and onefourth pounds of flour, having mixed thoroughly through the dry flour one and a half measures of "Banner" Baking Powder; bake one hour in a slow even. For the icing, take two and a half cups granulated sugar, half cup water, boil three minutes; when cool, add the whites of three eggs, slightly beaten, and one teaspoonful of extract of bitter almond.

The "Banner" Powder is made from the highest test (99 per cent) pure cream tartar. It does not contain alum, ami dust; therefore it stands at the head of the list for perfect purity. Many families have used the "Banner" Powder for 25 years. Order a pound can with the Becipe Book from your grocer; if he cannot supply the book send your address to B. B. P. Co., P. O. Box 245 Pittsburg, Pa., and we will mail it.
